

Graph minors and graphs on surfaces

Bojan Mohar
University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Graph minors are fundamentally interconnected with the theory of graphs embedded in surfaces. Robertson and Seymour used graph minors to prove a generalization of the Kuratowski Theorem to arbitrary surfaces, and they also need surface embeddings in their Excluded Minor Theorem. Some recent results related to graph minors and graphs on surfaces will be presented.