

Spin models and Δ -Y transformations

Isaías López
CINVESTAV-IPN

In this talk we show how to calculate the partition function of a spin model on a graph using local transformations on the graph. In particular our transformations are a generalization of the well know Δ -Y transformations for graphs.