

Graphs of crossing number at most one

Neil Robertson
Ohio State University

(joint work with Bogdan Oporowski and Dirk Vertigan)

There are infinitely many topologically minimal graphs with crossing number at least two. This talk is about the classification of such graphs. From this a Kuratowski-type characterization of graphs embeddable in the plane with at most one crossing follows.