The heterochromatic number of surface triangulation

Jorge Arocha
IMATE–UNAM

The heterochromatic number of a hypergraph H is the minimum number t of colors such that in any vertex t–coloring an heterochromatic edge can be found. In the talk sharp bounds for the heterochromatic number of surface triangulations will be given.